

Specialist support for brighter futures

Torbay Domestic Abuse Service provides support for men, women and children who need advice and protection from domestic abuse.

We offer a wide range of help, including support and confidential advice and crisis accommodation.

Remember - in an emergency dial 999

Domestic abuse is the physical, financial, emotional or sexual abuse of one person by another, usually within an intimate relationship or families.

Domestic abuse happens within all social groups, regardless of age, class, sex, race, culture, religion, ability or sexuality.

Whether you are thinking about leaving an abusive relationship, wish to stay or have already left, we can help you in many ways, including:

- One-to-one emotional support
- Practical support including finance, benefits and health
- Support through the criminal justice system and obtaining legal orders
- Refuge and safe house accommodation
- Safety planning
- Help accessing other agencies
- Finding long term accommodation

You can talk to us about your feelings and concerns and our highly experienced staff can provide advice and support whilst looking at your options.

We also provide groups and courses for those affected by domestic abuse, which you can access as part of our service.
